| 1. My soule opprest with care and griefe,
doth cleave unto the dust:
O quicken mee after thy woord,
for therein doe I trust. | 5. All falsehood, and false waies O Lord, doe thou from mee remove:
And graunt mee grace to know thy law
And onely that to love. |
| 2. My waies unto thee have I shew'd,
thou answerest mee againe:
Teach mee thy law and so I shall,
bee eased of my paine. | 6. The way of truth I choose to tread,
to keepe my life in awe:
And see before me as a marke,
Thy sacred woord and law. |
| 3. The way of thy commandments Lord,
make mee to understand:
And I will muse upon the power
And wonders of thy hand. | 7. I cleave, O Lord, unto all things, witnessed by thy speech:
Whereof that I repent mee not
I humbly thee beseech. |
| 4. My heart doth melt and pine away,
for verie paine and griefe:
O, raise mee up, after thy word
And send mee some reliefe. | 8. When that my heart thou shalt enlarge,
to seeke and run the waies:
Of thy precepts, I will not faile,
the length of all my daies. |

Part of my complete edition of the published vocal works of William Byrd made available through the Choral Public Domain Library (<http://www.cpd.org>). For general editorial notes, please visit my user page at <http://www.cpd.org/wiki/index.php/User:DaveF>. All scores are made freely available according to the CPDL Licence for downloading, printing, performing and recording. No further conditions are or can be attached, although it's always good to hear of any performances. Please do not, without consulting me, make copies of my scores available through other websites – there's no need, first of all, as CPDL is always here, and secondly by doing so you put these editions beyond my control and so will miss out on any updates and revisions.
